Full-day Seminar Time: 8:45 am - 4:00 pm

AM Session: 8:45 - 12:00 noon (Reg at 8 am - incl breakfast)
PM Session: 12:45 - 4:00 pm (Reg at 12 noon - incl. lunch)

Topics: 1. Top Ten Game Changers for Successful Weight Loss Plans:

Do you struggle to get clients to acknowledge their pet is overweight? Are you interested in setting up a weight loss plan program? Dr. Parr will provide tips & tools to make your weight loss program a success! She will focus on nutrients to consider when selecting diets for weight loss & the 10% rule for treats.

2. Raw and cooked homemade diets: What's the concern? Are you seeing patients on homemade and/or raw meat diets that are not complete & balanced? Dr. Parr will give you tools to help determine if the diet has the potential to be complete & balanced & discuss strategies & resources for approaching homemade & raw meat diet discussions with pet owners.

3. Help! I'm suffering from nutrition fatigue! Are you tired of busting nutrition myths & exhausted by the misinformation online about pet nutrition? Myth busting is an ineffective strategy to correct misinformation & can result in frustration. Dr. Parr will focus on effective approaches for delivering info to pet owners and cover hot topics like by-products, corn & coconut oil!

4. How a veterinary clinical nutritionist approaches "What is the best diet for my pet?" Dr. Parr will cover her approach to the WSAVA Nutritional Assessment Guidelines & provide tips/ tricks to implement these guidelines into every appointment, including how to assess non-veterinary diets. She will also provide tools to make answering "what is the best diet for my pet" easier.
