

The Edmonton Association of Small Animal Veterinarians
presents a 2 topic, in-person day of CE for DVMs & RVTs...
Advanced Urban Hen Care
with Daren Mandrusiak, BSc, DVM

This seminar is being offered in person, in conjunction with our Triage Tango seminar. If we do not attain sponsorship for either talk scheduled on this day, this will move to a webinar format (same day & time).

Date: Sunday, Feb. 11, 2024
Time: 12:30 pm - 2:30 pm MST

Location: NAIT Shaw Theatre (X123- South Learning Centre)
Address: 11762-106 Street NW Edmonton, AB T5G 2R1
Lunch will only be provided to people attending both The Triage Tango and Advanced Urban Hen Care sessions.

Do you want a chicken or do you want this chicken?
Backyard hens are increasing in popularity not only throughout North America but in Alberta! The care clients are seeking for these birds can vary from a more agricultural utilitarian focus to an individual pet bird focus. More and more these charismatic birds are sneaking their way into the pet category where they are expecting care on par with other pet birds.

This lecture will focus on the care of individual pet chickens, where the owners want THIS chicken. Topics covered will include individual bird focused diagnostics, imaging, therapies, surgical interventions and pharmacology (cGFARAD be damned! because these birds will be un-consumable).

Fees (Late - in brackets):

EASAV RVT & DVM Members: FREE
CAVM Members, students & unregistered support staff: FREE
Non-member RVTs: $15.75 ($26.25)
Non-member DVMs: $32 ($52.50)
